

High-end sofa with energy storage

We do wish this sofa bed had a less irregular mattress size. It's 75 inches wide x 66 inches long, so it's almost as wide as a king bed but shorter. You could opt to place the sofa-back cushions on the left or right edge of the fold-out cushions and lie down parallel to the sofa width, making it closer in size to a queen.

Known to be one of the best sectional sofas we tested, the West Elm Harmony Sleeper Sectional also makes an excellent everyday couch with plush yet supportive cushions and durable construction. This sleeper sofa has five throw pillows, large and small, and a storage chaise we found useful for housing our throw blankets and extra pillows.

The most common sofa materials are leather, cotton, linen, polyester, velvet, microfiber, and chenille. A high-quality reclining sofa should have a combination of sturdy construction and durable materials, like the Lark Manor Elida Reclining Sofa, our best manual pick. We like how the Elida Reclining Sofa is made with a solid wood frame and has ...
