

Lego solar system orrery

Models of the Solar System have been made since the times of Ancient Greece and Rome and by the early 18th century clockmakers used Gears to make models which could show the Orbits of Planets around the Sun. One such clockwork model was presented to Charles Boyle, 4th Earl of Orrery and this how they became known as Orreries.. Features and Applications

I was looking for an orrery to purchase because of the solar eclipse of 2024. Almost got the LEGO Technic 42179 Planet Earth and Moon in Orbit. I'm glad I did a bit more research and discovered the CADA C71004 The Solar System ...

This calculator for making scale solar system models gives an Earth orbit radius of 7.74 m, or 25 ft 5 in. Of course the Earth itself should then only be 0.6 mm in diameter, and the Moon would be about 0.16 mm, which you would have to represent with some tiny bits of paper.

An Orrery is a model solar system. Not sure if this is the right forum to ask you about an ongoing defect that has existed in Legos products since, well forever - color stability. Anyone who has owned a number of Lego sets for any length of time will know that your model will deteriorate significantly over time.

Brent: The original idea came to me back when I was making another LEGO Ideas project for the film "The Dark Crystal" in 2019. In that film, there's a crazy weird Orrery of a fantasy solar system of their planet "Thra". I built a minifig version of that Orrery for the Ideas project.

?[Solar System Model] This is a science education space planet architecture toy set that will inspire or improve their knowledge of space astronomy, Earth, moon and sun orrery model could be rotated by the crank and as the earth orbiting around the sun, moon orbiting around the earth, which shows the planetary orbit in motion.

Waller, an environmental artist for video games, explained that the idea had come from another Lego Ideas submission he'd made in 2019 for The Dark Crystal film. In that instance, he'd built a small, non-working orrery of the fantasy solar system and pondered, "Wouldn't it be great if Lego made a real working orrery of our own solar system?"
