

The market for battery energy storage is estimated to grow to $10.84bn in 2026. The fall in battery technology prices and the increasing need for grid stability are just two reasons GlobalData have predicted for this growth, with the integration of renewable power holding significant sway over the power market.

IESA's VISION 2030 report was launched at this year's India Energy Storage Week event. Image: IESA. To integrate a targeted 500GW of non-fossil fuel energy onto its networks by 2030, at least 160GWh of energy storage will be needed in India by that time, according to the India Energy Storage Alliance (IESA).

SIEW 2023 The 16th Singapore International Energy Week (SIEW) is Asia's leading platform for the discussion of key energy issues that impact the region. Themed "Energy Transition Towards a Net Zero World", SIEW 2023 is organised by the Energy Market Authority of Singapore, and will take place from 23 to 27 October 2023 at the Sands Expo and Convention ...

Huge step up in India's estimated energy storage requirements. The amount of energy storage India requires to attain those goals could be far higher than previous forecasts and predictions had hinted at. Previously, the country's Central Electricity Authority (CEA) had modelled a need for about 28GW/108GWh of energy storage by 2030 to ...
